“ One of the loveliest and charming ladies it has been my pleasure to know. Her enthusiasm for my watercolors encouraged me to keep painting.

“ I KNEW LINDA IN HIGH SCHOOL. SHE WAS A SPECIAL PERSON. AT THE LAST WELLSTON HIGH REUNION SHE JOINED "PANCHO" AND MYSELF FOR BREAKFAST. WE TALKED ABOUT THE OLD DAYS BACK IN WELLSTON. SHE WAS THAT SAME SWEET SPECIAL PERSON I HAD KNOWN BACK IN 1952. SHE WILL BE MISSED.

“ *Linda was the person, in a group, to find the quiet one in the corner and engage them in conversation. She spoke her thoughts and let others do the same. A rare, beautiful quality nowadays. Miss you.

“ The tune of Elton John's famous song "Candle in the Wind" floats through my mind. "... You died long before your legend ever will" And the legend of Linda North lives on. Her free spirit defied convention and her endless curiosity explored all of the arts. Your legend lives on, Linda, and you are dearly missed.

“ Linda had an intrepid spirit, a giving soul, and a loving heart. I will miss her as we have been fast friends since meeting 30 years ago. She had a large group of friends who she enjoyed having at her annual Christmas Party yearly. We always laughed and giggled about ourselves. She is a sweet angel, and I know she is with us right now - looking after us, her sisters, her girlfriends.
