

Linda Jeanne Youngdahl

August 31, 1944 - August 25, 2024

Linda J Youngdahl

Born Linda Jeanne Daugherty, Age 79 of St Cloud, passed away peacefully August 25th, 2024 just 6 days before her 80th birthday, she is preceded in death by daughter Coleen (Kelly), parents John and Jeanne Daugherty, and sister Joan. She is survived by daughters Dustine McKowen, Christine Wollersheim, Shannon (Mick) Fredrickson, Jeanne Peterson, sister Jacqie Daugherty, and many loved grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces nephews.

Linda has always been perceived as someone special, kind and generous always to her family and others. She was the ultimate crafter, knitting, crocheting, floral arranging, embroidery, she was good at all of them. To her family, among the many happy memories she brought to us was her love of Christmas, not just the single day, but the joyous season she made for us all. Among her personal proud successes was her many years in several forms of retail management, from being a regional manager for a chain of medical uniform shops, to women's and men's clothing. In retirement, she co-owned an antique and gift store with daughter Dustine, for 7 years. It was one of her joys. Emerald Isle Antiques and Gifts. It was a wonderful outlet for her outgoing, friendly nature :-). She loved talking to all people. A conversation with someone she had never met before, would leave them feeling as though they had spent time with an old friend by the end of it, and they would happily come back in hopes of chatting with her again.

She will be deeply missed by all of us, her big family and her many friends.

“ I remember working with her in the Antique Shop (Emerald Isle) in Anoka. Whenever there was any sign of trouble, she always had our back. She was a fierce momma bear and was always first in line to make sure we didn't get taken advantage of. She was always kind and generous to us.

For as long as I can remember, my sisters n I called her Mrs. Pete. She was our neighbor and friend. As we got older, alot of years went by without contact up until 7 yrs ago. It was delightful to get together with her again, get caught up and kept in touch since. My heart breaks to know she has passed. A beautiful soul and person. I will miss her 😞

I Loved my Blonde hair Boomshell Cousin SO Much , she Forced me to clug / tap while square dancing with her and Dennis's group the Sunset Twirler's , one of a kind for sure, it was hard to watch her fade near the end but my Champ Dusty had all under control and peace came to my favorite Cousin .

“ No matter what was going on at family events, kids running around, food prep, cleaning, or just helping out, she ALWAYS took the time to talk with you. She would say something so sweet with that big loving smile. I love you grandma.
