“ I just heard of Lindsay's death in an alumni letter from Concordia. Though I only knew Lindsay as an acquaintance from Roseville Middle School, Concordia, and camping ministry, I am deeply saddened by this world's loss of her. By the way she carried herself and in her interaction with others, it was obvious that she knew God's love for her and lived her life in response to that love. Thank God for the time Lindsay spent on this earth.

To all the people who loved and cared for Lindsay, please accept my sympathies. May God's Peace be with you in your continued grieving.

“ When I think back to my high school years, the first person I think of is Lindsay. I had a hard time in high school and it seemed she was the only teacher who truly cared about me and my feelings. I invited her to my grad party and she came bringing the Dr. Suess book, "Oh the Places You'll Go." with an inscription by her. My heart broke when I heard she was sick. She will be missed immensely.

“ When Dietrich Bonhoeffer was confronted with his own mortality, he said something that was very profound and was a testimony to great faith. "This is the end, but for me the beginning of life." Lindsay was a woman whom I greatly admired as someone with great faith, fire and passion for the Lord. It was apparent to me growing up at Calvary, getting to know her there, and then working with her at Wapo that Christ ruled and lived in her heart in serving others. She will never be forgotten.

Bonhoeffer's words lay testimony for us too in that we are given the baptismal promises of eternal life through faith in Christ. That is our Hope. Lindsay is experiencing Life in the truest sense in and with communion with Christ. Though it is difficult to think of her not with us, I rejoice that I had the privilege to know her and that she is living with Jesus in paradise!

“ My heart goes out to Brian and the Ostrem and Roach families in the untimely death of such a wonderful woman. I wasn't close to Lindsay, but at Concordia, she was well known for her attitude, positive outlook, and willingness to help. Even though she left this earth too soon, I am comforted by the legacy she left behind....the strength and courage she instilled in the lives of her students and campers, the unconditional love for her husband and family, and the amazing friendship she shared with many. May she continue to bless our lives while her memory lives on. She will truly be missed.

“ We first met Lindsay about 3 years ago when our oldest son was a senior at RAHS, and our paths crossed again more directly last year when our third child had her as a freshman social studies teacher. After our oldest son went to college at Concordia, she never failed to ask us how he was doing. She was an energetic, encouraging young woman who was able to transmit that energy and positive outlook to her students despite all she herself was facing. Our prayers are with her family and friends in this difficult time of loss.

“ Mrs. Roach was my NHS advisor. Although I knew her for only a short time, I could see the love and hard work that she put into everything she did. She was an inspiration to everyone that knew her. When I saw her at the wake, there seemed to be something missing...almost as though I didn't recognize her. As I was looking at the program at the funeral today, I realized what was missing...her smile. She ALWAYS had a smile on her face. Whenever I think of Lindsay, I will picture her beautiful smile illuminating the room. She was the most positive person I have ever met. She could turn anyone's frown upside down. I will always remember her for her positive attitude, love for others, and her faith in God...as I know the rest of her friends will too. I feel blessed to have known Lindsay. She is, and always will, be greatly missed. We love you Lindsay.

“ Lindsay,

*You were my counselor when I was in 7th grade. All of us girls from Prince of Peace in Roseville were up at WAPO that summer and I had just such a blast with you!! Although I was up at camp almost every summer when I was younger, you are one of the counselors that I remember the most. Your amazing spirit and love for the Lord impacted me so very much that I wanted to become a counselor one day too. And in fact for these past three years I have been. And then I saw you up at the reunion this fall and it was great to talk with you and the best part of all, is that you did remember me. I will never forget how much love you had for your campers--for all of us crazy girls that week, when we were in 7th grade. Thank you for your kind words and your listening ear. “ Lindsay,

You were my counselor when I was in 7th grade. All of us girls from Prince of Peace in Roseville were up at WAPO that summer and I had just such a blast with you!! Although I was up at camp almost every summer when I was younger, you are one of the counselors that I remember the most. Your amazing spirit and love for the Lord impacted me so very much that I wanted to become a counselor one day too. And in fact for these past three years I have been. And then I saw you up at the reunion this fall and it was great to talk with you and the best part of all, is that you did remember me. I will never forget how much love you had for your campers--for all of us crazy girls that week, when we were in 7th grade. Thank you for your kind words and your listening ear. Until we meet again,

I thought it may be helpful for you all to know that as I have been listening to some of Lindsay's students share their feelings of profound sadness and sorrow, it is clear that Lindsay touched so many students lives here. She was so nice to all and accepted everyone.You could see her love for JESUS by the way she presented herself. I am thankful to have known her. SHE was a special part of the class of 1995 and the ROSEVILLE community. Even though its been so long since seeing her,except a breif hello at JC PENNY this past spring i will never forget her. She was cut short on this life but is on "streets of Gold" now and no more pain and suffering. I will pray for the family .

“ Ms. O was a very inspiring teacher. She brought new life to the classroom, she always made you laugh, she made you learn, she always got you thinking, no matter what the subject was, she always made you want to learn more and you left her classroom knowing that you have expanded your knowledge and that it will stay with you. Ms. O was the best friend that a student could have, she was just like us, whenever you needed a shoulder to cry on, she would give you hers. Whenever you had a question, she would clarify and bring it to a higher level. She always had a smile and was willing to joke around, but teach when it was time, and be a student like the rest of us. She will never be forgotten. To all the senior graduates of 2003 and above, she will forever be known as Ms. O.

Jesus Christ, Lord of the living and dead: with each generation your body of believers grows and grows. Thank you for all who have gone before us, for what they achieved and what they learned. Give us strength to do your will to be your body now. Amen.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family. I thought it may be helpful for you all to know that as I have been listening to some of Lindsay's students share their feelings of profound sadness and sorrow, it is clear that Lindsay touched so many students lives here. Lindsay cared so much about her students and they in turn cared so much about her. Lindsay was a teacher that clearly made a difference at Roseville Area High School. I will greatly miss her and her warm caring smile.

“ My deepest sympathies to all close to LINDSAY..i went to highschool with her and will always remember her always smiling and a very compassionate person. She was so nice to all and accepted everyone.You could see her love for JESUS by the way she presented herself. I am thankful to have known her. SHE was a special part of the class of 1995 and the ROSEVILLE community. Even though its been so long since seeing her,except a breif hello at JC PENNY this past spring i will never forget her. She was cut short on this life but is on "streets of Gold" now and no more pain and suffering. I will pray for the family .

“ Ms. O was a very inspiring teacher. She brought new life to the classroom, she always made you laugh, she made you learn, she always got you thinking, no matter what the subject was, she always made you want to learn more and you left her classroom knowing that you have expanded your knowledge and that it will stay with you. Ms. O was the best friend that a student could have, she was just like us, whenever you needed a shoulder to cry on, she would give you hers. Whenever you had a question, she would clarify and bring it to a higher level. She always had a smile and was willing to joke around, but teach when it was time, and be a student like the rest of us. She will never be forgotten. To all the senior graduates of 2003 and above, she will forever be known as Ms. O.

she danced. she took. she gave. she served. she loved. she

“ To the family of Lindsay Roach: I am very sorry for the lost of such a wonderful person. Lindsay wasnt just a teacher she was a friend, a helper, a great person to talk to when you were down or needed help in life. Even though she wasnt having the best day she would always try her best to make our day better. She could have been feeling really bad that day and just sick and crabby but she would never show that she felt like that. She always enjoyed helping us and teaching us new things her goal was to help us all as much as she could and have us all suceed. She incouraged us all the time and told us the truth about everything even if it wasnt what we wanted to hear. She never feared life and always lived it to the fullest. I dont remeber a time when she was negative or gave up on herself or a student, even if the student gave up she would still push us and believe in us. She was a very loved and a loving person and she will be missed by many people.And now she is in a better place and watching over us all.

“ My condolences to all family and friends, I am so glad to have known Lindsay.

*Would like to share this poem by Maryanne Radmacher:
she danced. she took. she gave. she served. she loved. she created. she dissented. she enlivened. she saw. she grew. she sweated. she changed. she learned. she laughed. she shed her skin, she bled on the pages of her days, she walked through walls, she lived with intention.*

“ Lindsay impacted my life, even though I only knew her when we were very young. Most of what I remember about Lindsay was her fun attitude while playing tag or other neighborhood games. She had a zest for life and was kind and caring. My deepest sympathies.

“ While I didn't know Lindsay, she was a good friend of my sister Missy -- who for weeks forwarded e-mails about the incredible lung transplant Lindsay and her family undertook. I was often moved to tears by her family's good spirits, sacrifices and hope, and incredible love for each other. These actions were examples for all. May God bless all who knew Lindsay in grieving the loss and celebrating the life.

“ Lindsay was such a special person and I am so thankful that our lives crossed through Brian, a close friend of mine since childhood in Sioux Falls. Brian and Lindsay have taught me, my wife, and everyone around them so much and provided many special times. My sympathies go out to the Ostrem and Roach families and all of her friends. Lindsay was a gift. Thank you Lindsay.
