

Linus Vollmer

February 15, 2009

Vollmer, Linus P. age 85, of Minneapolis, died at his home on Wednesday, February 11, 2009. Linus Phillip Vollmer was born September 27, 1923 in Minneapolis, MN, the son of Louis P. Vollmer and Florence (Keenan) Vollmer DuVal. He graduated from Minneapolis High School. After high school, Linus attended the Minneapolis Art Institute in Minneapolis, MN. He then entered the Army serving in Hawaii. When Linus returned from the Army, he entered his world of art. Linus attended the Walker School and the St. Paul Gallery and School of Art. Linus retired in 1985 from WCCO Television, where he was a film editor for over 32 years. Linus looked at life through the eyes of an artist, which was evidenced by his paintings and the photographs he took. He loved gardening, literature, art, music and travel. Best of all, he loved long walks with his dog, "Buster." Linus is survived by his two brothers, Steve (Jackie) of Brainerd and his son Patrick; John (Mary) of Brainerd and his son Ryan; two sisters, Pam McCarty of Houston, TX and her sons Todd and Craig; Dena Bickhardt (Philip) of Morgan, MN and their children Pam and Adam. Linus was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Virgil and lifelong companion, Jack Roby. The family requests memorials to Hospice in lieu of flowers. A memorial service will be held Monday, February 16, 2009, 11:00 AM, with visitation one hour before at: Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996 West 50th St. & Hwy 100
