

Lisa Dill

April 24, 1959 - January 2, 2024

Dill (Miller), Lisa, age 64 of St. Louis Park, born April 24, 1959 with twin brother Lyle; passed away January 2, 2024. Raised in north Minneapolis until 1966, then moved to Mound. She is one in a million. A brave mom, she survived CML leukemia (self BMT 1994 and umbilical cord BMT 2000), as she had a son to raise. Lisa made delicious matzo ball soup she learned from Grandma Rose. She worked for Red Owl corporate and had a successful masseuse business until CML. She was a giver and was always thinking of others. She is filled with love and understanding and will be missed by her by son Israel, brothers Steve, Lyle and Brian, other relatives and friends. Preceded in death by parents Harold and Charlene Miller. Funeral service 11 AM Friday, 1/5 at United Hebrew Brotherhood Chapel, 2605 W. 70th 1/2 St, Richfield (webcast <https://vimeo.com/899874166?share=copy>). “ This is us at a Bette Midler concert and 15 feet off the ground. She meant so much to me. I'm so grateful she never gave up on me and stayed with me when no one else did. A true blessing and truly selfless. She was one of the strongest women that I had the privilege to call my family. She will be in my heart forever and ever.
