“Lois and I met as I was searching for information on my paternal grandfather's family. Because of her I learned her grandmother and my grandfather were siblings--thus she and my father are cousins. Later she and Roy visited my parents in Billings MT--took lots of pictures.
As we shared, I learned she had a "wealth" of information about my/our family history. She has been a blessing to me. And, I'm sure she has been a blessing to many others.
