“Lois and my mother were friends since their school days. I remember her my whole life growing up. She and Chuck would come to our home for little game nights that would include great food, then the men would retire to the living room and "Try" to watch some TV while Lois and my mom sat in the kitchen playing and singing with their guitars and tape recorders. Lois was a wonderful woman. Always really nice, and man was she funny. RIP Lois. Maybe now you and my mom are singing around the Lord's table. Sincerely, Gary VanCamp from Andover, MN 5-11-2014.
