

Lois Engstrom Wagner

July 28, 1936 - August 26, 2022

Lois was born July 28, 1936 in Escanaba, Michigan to John Edward and Anna Linnea Sundell. She is preceded in death by older siblings Edwin Sundell and Marilyn Anderson. She grew up in Minneapolis and graduated from Minnehaha Academy. Lois was married on July 26, 1957 to Jerry Engstrom who preceded her in death in February 1989. Lois is survived by her children Joni, Steve, and Kim; grandchildren Annie, Linnea, Jerry, Ellisa and Zandria; and great grandchild Linnea. Lois remarried in March 2005 to Jim Wagner. Jim is currently residing in a home in Illinois, to be near his children.

Lois stayed home with her kids until they were older then worked for Bloomington Schools. She worked in Commercial Real Estate for Trammel Crow as an Office Manager for 11 years and in Banking for Wells Fargo as an Executive Assistant to former CEO for 9 years. When he moved to Arizona, she also moved to continue managing his household as he had Alzheimer's.

Lois retired in December 2002. She loved to knit, crochet, and make quilts. She was proud of her work when she won awards at the local quilting competitions. In her later years she enjoyed coloring. Lois was passionate about her relationship with her Savior, Jesus Christ. Two of her children were involved in summer mission projects with Teen Missions which sparked her interest in foreign missions.

She was a member of Wooddale, and attended there from 1959 to the time she moved to Arizona. She was involved in VBS programs, high school ministry, and very involved with foreign missions.

Gifts in her memory may be sent to Wooddale Church - Foreign Missions.
