

Lonna Olson

September 3, 2009

Olson, Lonna Morrison A shining light passed from our view this day, Sept. 2 as our dearest mother, sister, aunt, friend and caregiver to all died from her battle with mesothelioma. Lonna was born April 26, 1941 in Auburn, Washington. She was preceded in death by her parents, Harold and Nona Hayes and husband, Kerby Olson. She is survived by her twin daughters, Kristen Olson and Kim (Ryan) Sebesta; stepson, Kevin (Saree) Olson; brother, Jim (Lisa) Hayes; sister, Janice Hayes; and many other relatives and friends. Lonna graduated from Murray High School and received an Associate degree from the U of M. Her life has been devoted to her husband, daughters, family, and her many projects and friends. She had a quick wit, a wide, warm smile and a loving heart. She possessed a rare personality that made everyone immediately feel at ease. We will all miss her. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in her honor to the Mesothelioma Foundation (www.curemeso.org) or CaringBridge (www.caringbridge.org) Memorial service 2 PM Saturday at: Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996 West 50th St. & Hwy 100
