

Loreta Silvia Gayle

April 24, 1941 - June 18, 2025

We celebrate the courageous life of Loreta Silvia (Buckley) Gayle our beloved mother and grandmother, whose angels escorted her home safely into the presence of God on June 18th, 2025 at the age of 84 years old.

Loreta was the youngest of 3 daughters born to Herbert and Dorthia (Marshall) Buckley in Panama City, Panama. Loreta attended Bible College in Trinidad where she met her lifelong friend Aileen Agiraga.

In 1964 Loreta was married to Rodney Morris Gayle and from that union, came Rodney Rolando and Roger Tim. After Christ, Loreta's greatest joy was her sons and watching her family grow, cherishing every moment with her granddaughters. Family was at the heart of her world, providing love, support, and cherished memories. Loreta was an active and devoted church member for many years. She enjoyed singing, studying scripture, and visiting the sick. In addition to worshipping the Lord, she also enjoyed family vacations with her sons and visits to California, spending time with her sisters, Iscilda and Marva. Loreta began a 33 year career with the Minnesota State Board of Nursing registration in 1975.

She will be remembered for her strong faith and unending devotion and love for her family. She had a passion for sewing, knitting, family dinners and walks. Her selfless acts of kindness and giving leave behind a lasting legacy of love

. Loreta was preceded in death by both of her parents and her sister, Marva. Loreta leaves to cherish her memory: sons Rodney Rolando Gayle (Danielle),

Roger Tim Gayle (Tiffane); granddaughters: Amaria, Paige, Nia, Rayna and Arianna; sister: Iscilda.

Loreta Silvia Gayle's memory will forever be held in the hearts of those who loved her.
