“ Boys, my strongest memory of Loretta/Arv/Ron/Rosemary was my first Teppanyaki dinner when we visited the Twin Cities after cousin Deena and I married, IchiBan, if memory serves. Your mom was so gracious and welcoming on all our visits even after we moved o-seas. Her love of family was always evident. May the God of all peace comfort you and your families

“ *To Mathew and family,
So sorry for your loss Loretta was such a kind, helpful and loving person. She was a wonderful grandma to Mathew and was willing to babysit at a moments notice.
She made the best cashew cookies and wild rice hot dish!
You will all be in my prayers.
