“ Washburn-McReavy Funeral Chapels created a Celebration of Life for Lori Jean Taylor in memory of Lori Jean Taylor

I worked with Lori at Ameriprise, she was kind, detailed, hard working and full of joy. But the biggest memory of her character was her willingness to tolerate me! I was shocked to hear about her and wish the family peace as you navigate this time.

“ The first time I met Lori, she was taking her younger kids trick or treating. She said, "Hey, our kids are the same ages! We should get them together!" That was the beginning of a path being worn from our house to the Taylors' to the Thomas'. Lori loved her kids and I knew that she had the same care and love for mine too. When Lori and JT lived down the street, I would sometimes start out on my evening walk and end up chatting. Words can't express how sorry I am for her family... she will be so missed.

“ My deepest condolences! I worked with Lori and although our interactions were via zoom calls. It was joyful every chance I got to speak with her. No matter how small or big of an interaction, she would brighten up the day. She was such a special human being! I can't imagine the loss her family is feeling and my heart and thought are with you all.

*Sincerely,
Liz Delgado.*

“ *JT and Family,
I will continue praying for your family's healing as Lori's light continues to shine in and through me as well as all of the individuals she connected with. My memories of Lori's infectious laughter and giving heart gives me everlasting joy. I am grateful for the memories and the moments we shared. Thank you for the live feed the service was beautiful celebration of Lori's legacy and the love you shared with her. Love and light continue to flow through you.*

“ I knew Lori for just a short time as I joined the Services team in Procurement. I joined our Services Culture Club and Lori welcomed Me with a smile and open arms! When I finally got to meet her in person last week at Target HQ, she was exactly as I imagined - so friendly , outgoing and engaging! We coordinated a culture club event for our total team together and she took the time to pass out cookies to each and every person who came that day. Making a personal connection with every person! I will cherish that memory because it was such a small act of kindness and she made so many people smile that day.
My prayers and thoughts are with her family. I know I only saw a small piece of how amazing she was but her smile and energy will stay with me forever.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I worked with Lori at Target and often saw her at Military Business Council events. We bonded over our time in the service and her laughter and smile were contagious. I was honored to get to know her over the years. She will be missed. See you in Valhalla my Warrior Sister!!

“ The last time Duane and I were together and saw Lori and JT was at our wedding in 2001. A long time ago. We were so honored that you two shared our day with us. Lori was my supervisor at HichoryTech - she had the most infectious smile which made even the lousiest days easy to get through. Over the years I've so enjoyed seeing posts about your family - a lovely family to be sure. With our sincerest sympathies, Duane and Amy Gillilan

“ Our sincere sympathy to all of Lori's family. Memories of raising our kids on Eagle/105th will always have found memories. Her whistle when it was time for the boys to come home still brings a smile. Lori was such a bright and dynamic light. We will all miss her and share in the sadness of her leaving, but take comfort in her flying high with the angels. Thinking of you all, Karen, Bob, Morgan and Amanda Thomas.

“ Lori and I worked together at Target for the last 5 years. I knew I would love her the day I met her and we accomplished so many great things. She was like my right arm, we were yin and yang. She was a bright light to everyone she met and her smile was contagious. Lori and I bonded mostly over our families! We shared so much that I love you all so much through her! Sending my most heartfelt sympathy to your family.

Lori-Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. No farewell words were spoken, there was no time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.
