“ Connie and I really enjoyed our time spent with Ernie and Lorna when the 4 of us spent a month in Texas, Ernie would lay out the schedule of Antique shops we would visit the next day, I would drive and Connie would tell me don't get there too early because Lorna would not be ready until she had her make up on and every hair in its proper place, so we never got started until around 10:00 AM. She was such a charming lady and the stories she could tell about growing up in north Minneapolis. It was a fun time and she will be dearly missed.
