“ Lorraine, My friday nights for over 25+ years were playing string quartet at your pleasant home in south mpls. I wouldn't of gone anywhere else for many years. You would try just about anything either on the Viola or the Violin. You are such wonderful talented friend. One night we were playing our favorite pieces and thinking we should have a name for our quartet. Chicks with sticks was invented. Just us ladies and that's the way you liked it. We laughed and laughed at that name. Another warm beautiful Friday night, we had the door open and trying out a new piece ( so many ) We had an audience outside your front door. At first they were singing with the melody and than turned louder and louder. We stopped playing and listened, looking out carefully through the doors window and rolled with laughter!!! It was cats fighting on the front steps. I have so many good laughing warm memories!! Lorraine I will miss your warm smile and sense of humor. Your friend Jill Lynch
