

Lorraine Charlotte Lindholm

November 4, 1919 - November 5, 2020

Lindholm, Lorraine Charlotte Age 101 of Brooklyn Center, passed away peacefully on November 5, 2020. Lorraine is survived by son, Dean (Mary Jo) and many loving nieces, nephew and friends. She was preceded in death by parents, Amanda and Herbert Anderson; husband, Kenneth Lindholm; son, Dale Lindholm; sisters, Ethel Anderson, Myrtle Titterud and Betty Anderson; brother, Warren Anderson and niece, Marilyn Pedersen. A wonderful wife, mother, aunt, and friend, Lorraine was a true renaissance woman. She embraced her role as matriarch of the family, was delighted by her Swedish heritage and loved entertaining. She was a successful runway model featuring a career in high-fashion retail working for Daytons and J.D. Hudson. She was a very talented artist and delighted friends and family with her hand-painted glassware. While Kenny was stationed in Africa and Italy during WWII, Lorraine moved to Seattle working for Boeing to support the war effort. Lorraine had deep faith and she and Kenny were founding members of Luther Memorial Church, she especially enjoyed bible study and singing in the choir. A private memorial service will be held.
