“ To John, Bev, Michele and the rest of the Ryan family. My deepest sympathies and prayers to you in the loss of both your mother and father in such a short period of time. Apparently it was God's will that they begin their Journey thru Heaven together even though it's so hard on all those left behind. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To the Ryan Family, I am sorry to learn of both of your parents deaths so close together. I think this happens often, in older married couples, it proves their true love . Your parents lived a good Catholic Life and taught all of you well. Peace, “*Ryan Family My deepest sympathies and prayers to you in the loss of both your mother and father in such a short period of time. Lorraine was such a dear friend to my mother as well as a huge help. Mother loved her dearly. Our family is deeply indebted to Lorraine for all her help in caring and loving our mother. You couldn't ask for a better friend. I know you will miss both your parents greatly. May God's peace and love be with you. Lorraine passed away on Mother's birthday - they now share this day as they celebrate together in heaven.
