

Lorraine (Schroedl) Pagani

September 26, 2010

Pagani, Lorraine C. (Schroedl) Age 92, of Edina, died September 13, 2010, from natural causes. Preceded in death by husband, Joseph; brothers, Roland, Eugene, John, and Fred Schroedl; and sister, Grace Thayer. Survived by daughter, Terry Pagani Westerman (Mark) of Atlanta, GA; grandson, Matthew Westerman; granddaughter, Stephanie Westerman; sister-in-law, Grace Roepke; niece, Mary Dietrich (David); nephews, Don Roepke (Kay) and Russell Schroedl; additional nephews, nieces, cousins and close friends. Born and raised in Gibbon, Minnesota, where she graduated from high school in 1935, Lorraine moved to Minneapolis where she graduated from business school. In addition to working for First Bank Credit for many years, she also worked for Minnegasco and the Edina Public School System. Lorraine was an Administrative Assistant at both Wooddale and Creek Valley Elementary Schools until her retirement. In 1951, Lorraine and Joe were married and would eventually move to Edina where they lived for 50 years. After retirement, Lorraine and Joe traveled the world including trips to Europe, Asia and Australia. They also spent time traveling in the U.S. and made frequent stops in Georgia to spend time with their grandchildren. An avid Minnesota Twins fan, Lorraine rarely missed listening to a game. In addition to baseball, she loved to play cards and games, cribbage being her favorite. Please, in lieu of flowers donations may be made to the University of Minnesota Cancer Center, c/o Minnesota Medical Foundation, PO Box 64001, St. Paul, MN 55164.
