

Lou Ann Dykstra

July 20, 2017

Dykstra, Lou Ann “Lou” age 82, of New Brighton passed away July 20, 2017. Preceded in death by parents, Charles “Cush” and Sylvia Conselman; and brother, Charles “Chuck” (Carolyn) Conselman. Lou earned a baccalaureate degree in nursing at the Univ. of MN and had a wonderful career as a registered nurse. She was a sixty-year member of Sweet Adelines, International, and sang baritone in the 1982 International gold medalist quartet, Music Gallery. Survived by husband, Bob; daughter, Kim (Steve) DeVoss; sons, Paul (Karen) Dykstra, and Randall (Heather) Dykstra; grandchildren, Kylie Dykstra, Savannah Dykstra, Chad Kracher, Matthew Kracher, and Cody Butala; many nieces and nephews, relatives and friends. Funeral service 11 AM on Friday, August 11, at Christ the King Lutheran Church in New Brighton with visitation one hour prior. Internment in the church columbarium. Memorials preferred to the Young Singers Foundation of Sweet Adelines International http://secure.sweetadelineintl.org/members_online/members/ysf_contribution.asp?action=start, or the Alzheimer's Association http://act.alz.org/goto/LouAnn_Dykstra.

Tribute Wall

LB

“ Luther Infiniti of Bloomington purchased the Joyful Memory for the family of Lou Ann Dykstra. ”

Luther Infiniti of Bloomington - August 09, 2017 at 02:39 PM

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Lou Ann Dykstra. ”

August 08, 2017 at 06:54 PM