“ Dear Priscilla, we are so sad to hear of Louie's passing. It was a pleasure to know him. Our visits with the two of you were always very special. It was delightful to spend time with you and to witness the love the two of you shared. He was a gentle loving soul who clearly enjoyed life and the people who came by the jewelry store. He was a talented craftsman who took such great pride and care in his work. We will always cherish those lovely visits we shared. We will keep you close to our hearts and in our prayers. You can take comfort in knowing he is with you and watching over you now and always. With all our love, the Ettens
