

Louise May Armitage

October 11, 1932 - December 28, 2019

Armitage, Louise May Age 87, passed away peacefully on December 28, 2019. Louise was born October 11, 1932, at her parent's home in rural McGrath, Minnesota. Louise and her sister Janice had a good childhood in McGrath despite growing up during the Depression. Their parents, Sander "Sam" Nelson and Jeanette Williams Nelson, provided for the family from Sam's ownership of McGrath's garage/gas station. In 1945, the family moved to Rochester, Minnesota. Louise enjoyed driving the Model A that Sam bought the girls. When Louise graduated high school, she moved to Minneapolis to attend the Minnesota School of Business. At her first job, she met her future husband, Bud Armitage. They were married in 1953 and raised a daughter, Vicky, and son, Scott in St Louis Park, Minnesota. Louise and Bud built a cabin on Clear Lake and enjoyed spending time there with family and friends. They also loved to travel. After Bud's passing in 1996, Louise continued to travel with friends or on her own. Many of her trips involved researching family history. She also was active in volunteer work. Louise was beloved by her family and many friends and will be missed. Survived by daughter Vicky (Greg) Frank, son Scott (Pat) Armitage, grandchildren Tim Frank, Joe Frank & Sharon (Zach) Northington, and great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by beloved husband, Bud, parents Sander and Jeannette, and sister Janice (Lewis) Judd. A memorial service is being planned for later this year.
