“ I only knew Louise through Facebook. We were friends there for 7 years. I enjoyed playing Wheel of Fortune with her and having interactions with her in a Facebook group of Wheel playing friends. She will be missed. My thoughts are with her family during this time.

Louise and I knew each other for more than 25 years; I am a close friend of her son, Brian. A few years ago, we started playing Words with Friends on Facebook. We played every day. When she was unable to play anymore, I missed her so much. She was a beautiful person--inside and out. May her memory be for a blessing. love you, cook
