

Lucile Kathryn Kitzerow

June 21, 2015 - July 20, 2025

Lucile (Lucy) Kitzerow was born in Minneapolis on June 21st, 2015, which also happened to be Father's Day! She was ready to meet her mom, dad and her big brother, Henry with her exuberant personality. Unexpectedly, Lucy left this Earth on July 20th, 2025, after succumbing to fatal injuries from an accident in Wisconsin.

Brandon and Katie had dreams of their little girl being an independent and strong force in this world and she sure succeeded! Lucy (aka Juju, Lou, Luc, Juju Bean, Lucy Goosy) was fierce, witty and always up for an adventure with the family. Lucy and Henry spent countless hours traversing the property at their home in Loveland, CO. They were like 2 peas in a pod, always out for the next exciting experience!

Lucy's contagious laugh, bright smile, authentic personality and welcoming kindness, brought out the best in her family and friends. Lucy loved to swim anywhere, hike and downhill ski with her family in the Colorado mountains, create unending arts and crafts, snuggle with her stuffed animals & Taggie, paint her nails daily, sing constantly, play soccer, and simply chat with friends and family.

No parent or sibling should ever have to navigate or accept the death of a young child but we can also say Lucy was extremely loved by so many, as shown by the outreach to her family, from across the nation since her passing. Lucy led a life of adventure, curiosity and joy. She will forever be missed, loved and remembered by grandparents, the Kadings and other family and friends  Henry reminded us that Lucy's heart touched everyone!

We love you Lucy - Mom & Dad & Henry

“Oh Lucy, my mind is filled with images of your sweet face. My days at Big T will not be the same without your frequent company at lunch and your calm voice of reason during our regular friendship groups. Your contribution through student council left a lasting effect on our school culture and your raining kindness campaign board will be a monument to your loving and bright nature as we mourn such a deep loss.

Brandon, Katie and Henry, I wish there was something I could do to lessen the inextricable pain that you must be experiencing. May you find moments of peace during this most difficult time. 💜

“ Lucy's light shone so bright! She was an absolute delight. I will always treasure the memory of her slow, sweet smile and her happy presence. My heart goes out to Henry. They were really a great team. Always happy together. I cannot even begin to process the enormity of your loss. This is a loss for all of us. Her potential was just overwhelming and so fun to watch as each year it grew and blossomed. Anything we can do to support your family, to celebrate Lucy's beautiful life, to spread her joy to the world around us. I would love to help. I'm praying for all of you daily.

“ Lucy,

My heart is full of memories of you. Having the honor of knowing you was a great gift. You had such a wonderful spirit, always wanting to go the extra mile to bring joy to others. You started a school wide kindness project that was such a catalyst for kindness in our entire building! Your time with our student council was impactful and inspiring. You always went above and beyond and were committed to helpfulness, joy and kindness. The world lost a beautiful person this week, and you will be dearly missed.

Kitzerow family,

Know my heart is with you all in these times. There are no words that can describe your pain, know that there are endless ears to listen, arms around you and shoulders to cry on. May you feel the love pouring in, now and forever. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Broken is all that I feel.
Pain so dark, deep, I can't heal.
Speed time, so I sleep away nightmares
The empty consumes, the reality stares

I loved every minute, so hard
Stark memories, now marred
By the new bleeding heart
You're in heaven, but apart

No words comfort enough
No sounds blocks out the rough
The deep darkness I see
Every breath, please take me!

Lord, You've been here, this place
Lost a child, grieved His face
Draw me near, Lord I pray,
I can't make it a day

With time, the wound heals
Jagged scars always feel
For loving a child, for one second even
Is the ultimate gift, and you have given me ten

Hold her close now, I cannot
For the minutes I got
Whisper daily, "I loved her,"
But You loved her first.
