“ Meemom,
I would always look forward to your Christmas visits to my Mawmaw's house. You would stay up until April. I loved spending time with you whether it was listening to you play your harmonica or putting on dance performances with my best friend at the time, Kylie. I loved playing Skip-O with you (I still do to this day) and watching the birds fly around outside, pointing out each and every cardinal with you. You were such a loving and amazing person. You put others before yourself unlike a lot of people today. I admire you for that.
You know, I go to prom in April, and I graduate in June. I hope you watch from heaven. You'll get a front row seat.
I still can't believe you are gone. Just last week, I would conversate with Mawmaw about you, and asking how you were. Now, you're not here. Everyone misses you. Andrew surely does. Dad, Mawmaw, Pawpaw, Mom, Charline, just anyone who had the pleasure to meet you. I love you so much and I will think of you every day. You'll always be in my heart giving me the warmth and love you showed when you were here. You will be with me everywhere I go.
I love you Meemom.

How do I say goodbye? I hold my tongue and count to 13 and let you lead my words. I pray I make you proud!

“ Lucille was a great neighbor and dear friend of our family. In spite of all her health problems she loved life and the light of the Lord shined through her. She was one of the happiest, kindest, most loving people I've ever known. She will be greatly missed.

With deepest sympathy,

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. A wiser man than I once said that there is nothing that one can do to prepare for the loss of a parent. My best to you and all in your family.
