“ When I first started at Guidant (13 years ago) she was one of the friendly voices on the other end of the phone. It was always a joy to talk with Lu...she made me feel welcome (as if she were already my friend). May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived.

“ Matts, I just heard of the passing of Lu and you have my deepest sympathy. Although we have not stayed in touch, she was a good woman; something we all find we need in life to keep us on the straight and narrow. Keep in mind the little things that made her special, because it is the little things that form the memories we cherish most.

“ While working for Guidant, I traveled to St Paul occasionally and in order to make the trip complete, I had to stop by and get a hug from Lu! She gave it to you straight, her laughter was infectious and I'll never forget her pride when talking about her family. My thoughts and prayers and with family and friends and she will be missed!

“ My condolences to Lu's family. I cannot express in words how special she was. I have met few people with bigger hearts than Lu. I have seen few couples who loved each other as much as Lu and Dick did. And I have rarely heard parents who thought so much of their son and daughter-in-law than the two of them did. An eagle flew very low over my house on Friday afternoon, and I wondered if it was a message that Lu was flying free from all her physical constraints. I hope so. I will miss her, but wish her God speed.
