

Lucille Hannah Wyrick

November 1, 1931 - January 24, 2020

Lucille (Lou) Hannah Wyrick, 88, passed away January 24, 2020 in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota. She was born November 1, 1931 in Mt. Vernon, South Dakota to Laverne and Grace (Stoddard) Rich. Lou and her proud parents lived together as a happy family until her father died when Lou was six years old. After that she spent her formative years with her mother and their extended family in South Dakota. Lou had many adventures as a child, riding horses, roller skating on the highway, and playing WWII games fighting off the enemies invading Mitchell, SD. As a teenager Lou learned to fly an airplane, taking several solo flights. She attended Wessington Springs College in Wessington Springs, South Dakota where she met her husband to be. Lou married Wesley (Wes) Wilbur Wyrick on November 22, 1951 in Mitchell, South Dakota. Together, they raised a family of six children in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Early in her married life she worked as a teacher in South Dakota. Later in life she worked as a real estate salesperson throughout the Minnesota Twin Cities area. She is preceded in death by her parents, Laverne Rich (1938) and Grace Maude Stoddard Rich (1964), her husband, Wesley Wilbur Wyrick (1984), her second child, Daniel Joe Wyrick (2016), and grandchild, Randi Jo Selton (2006). She is survived by her children Wesley Alan Wyrick, Marcie Ann Selton, Nanette Joan (Paul R.) Evans, Rebecca Lou (Timothy) Caulfield, and Brent Lewis (Melody) Wyrick, as well as her 14 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren.
