

Lucretia Orfield

December 23, 2003

- Orfield, Lucretia (Lucky) Linneman Age 83 and a resident of Jones Harrison in Minneapolis, passed away on Saturday, Dec. 20. She was born on Sept. 21, 1920, in Duluth, MN. As a child in Crosby, MN, she enjoyed going to camp, skating and playing tennis with friends, and she also worked in the candy department of her father's store. She graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1942 with a degree in business administration. Near the end of WWII, she was accepted for participation in the female pilot training program known as WASP (Women Airforce Service Pilots). She worked for IBM for six years as a systems service representative until her marriage to Wallace Orfield in 1951. She then worked with him in his real estate business. Then a resident of Edina, Lucky was an active member and one-time treasurer of the Minneapolis Woman's Club and was a member of Mount Olivet Lutheran Church for more than 50 years. In her adult years, she enjoyed traveling, tennis and her family. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wallace. Survived by sons, Wallace (Patricia), John (Jody) and Mark (Renee); and by daughter, Mary (Nick) Dawson; 10 grandchildren, Rachael (Charly) Marggraf, Nolan, Neil and William Orfield, Jenae, Hayley, Lyndee and Noelle Dawson, Matthias and Gabrielle Orfield; and many nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Friday 9-10:30AM at WASHBURN MCREAVY EDINA CHAPEL, West 50th St. and Vernon Ave. at Hwy. 100. Service 12 Noon Friday at MT. OLIVET LUTHERAN CHURCH, 50th and Knox Ave. S. Interment Lakewood Cemetery. Memorials may be given to the Mpls Woman's Club or Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church. Lucretia loved her children and grandchildren very much and will be missed by them and her many friends. Go with God, Grandma. Washburn McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996.