“ Dear Dixon 'Kids",
Memories are interesting and one wonders why certain ones 'stick' in your brain? For example, your mom introduced me to chow mein! We had so much fun playing together when you lived in Fairmont, especially you girls.

Sending sympathy and hugs to you and your families.

“ Your mom will always have a special place in our hearts, as Bruce and I spent the first night of our honeymoon with her. And I remember her when she was being nursed back to health with Aunt Hazel, way back in the early 60"s. Our sympathy to all of the family.

“ I remember catching fireflies in jars in the back yard. I think it was in Minnetonka? There was a creek back there. I do believe we even sneaked a few in the house.

My sympathy and love to all of the family.
