

Luther E. Cutchins Jr.

September 20, 2017

Captain Luther E (Ed) Cutchins, Jr. USAF ret, 63, died peacefully on 9/20/2017 from ALS. Preceded in death by his parents, Luther and Louise Cutchins; and his son Ryan. Survived by wife Lynn (Schlieff) of New Brighton, MN; son Luther of Chattanooga, TN; and his grandchildren, Josh, Nathan, Emily and Ava; sisters, Kay (Joel) Guy, and Linda Jensen of Marianna, FL; brother, TJ Cutchins of Tallahassee, FL; and his Minnesota family: in-laws, Harry (Sandy) Schlieff, Ann (Robert) Brannon, Jeff (Noreen) Schlieff; nieces, Molly and Emily Schlieff; and nephews, Will and Ben Brannon. Ed was a 1971 graduate of Marianna High School, joining the Air Force the same year. During Ed's 20 year Air Force career, Ed held many interesting and challenging positions that took him all over the world, including Faculty Member at the National Defense University, Software Development Manager and Special Agent with the Office of Special Investigations where he retired as the Deputy Chief of Computer Crimes Investigations. After the Air Force, Ed worked for several law enforcement agencies. In Florida, while working for the FL Dept of Law Enforcement, Ed was the first crime laboratory analyst for the Computer Evidence Recovery Unit. Ed moved on to work for the Virginia State Police where he retired as the Systems Analyst in charge of computerized criminal history. Ed then moved to a similar position in Minnesota with the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension where he retired after his diagnoses of ALS in 2013. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to ALS Guardian Angels <http://www.alsguardianangels.com/donate.html> in Ed's honor. Private interment
