In Loving Memory of Lynette McQuerry

March 1, 1953 - August 11, 2024

Lynette McQuerry was born on March 1st, 1953, in Des Moines, Iowa, to Mayvester Turner and Donald McQuerry. She grew up in a close-knit family, where she developed a strong and enduring bond with her siblings—a connection that would remain one of the most cherished aspects of her life.

Lynette attended the Des Moines Public School system, graduating from North High School, where she made many lifelong friends.

Lynette was the proud mother of two daughters, Kimberly and Jacquelyn McQuerry, who were the light of her life. Her love for them was matched only by her deep affection for her siblings, with whom she shared countless memories, laughter, and love.

In her professional life, Lynette was well-known and respected as a bartender at Robert's Lounge, where her warmth and vibrant personality endeared her to everyone she met. She had a natural gift for making people feel welcome, and her presence brought joy to those around her. Lynette had a deep love for R&B music and enjoyed doing hair, often styling her loved ones with as much care as she showed in all areas of her life.

In 1986, Lynette moved to Minnesota, where she continued to touch the lives of those around her. She was employed by G&K for five years before taking a position as a mail clerk at Ryan Co. During her 15 years there, she earned several Employee of the Year awards-a testament to her hard work, dedication, and the positive impact she had on her colleagues. She retired in 2019, leaving behind a legacy of excellence and kindness.

Lynette began her peaceful transition on August 11th, 2024. She is preceded in death by her beloved mother, Mayvester Turner, her brother, Charles Turner, and her sister, Donna

McQuerry. Lynette's memory will continue to live on through her father, Donald McQuerry

(Beverley), Daughters Kimberly St. Angelo (Ron) and Jacquelyn McQuerry (Scotty) and her siblings Michael McQuerry, Francine McQuerry, Cynthia Baring, Tony Williams, Jackie Ewing, Marsha Sumlin (Roy), and Crystal McQuerry. Her grandchildren-Alana Coleman, Chasity Smith, Jasmine Smith, C.J. Smith(Andrea), Kaylee St. Angelo, and Rosalee St. Angelo-along with her great-grandchildren, Aniya Smith, Telia Clark, Cedric Drake, Kingston St. Angelo,Harra Smith, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, will always remember her as a source of joy and love. Lynette will be forever remembered for the joy she brought to everyone she met, the laughter she shared with her siblings, and the unyielding love she had for her family. Her spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

“ I am a couple weeks late in learning of the passing of Lynette. I have not seen her in several years, but shock of loss feels the same. I probably met Nett in junior we remained friends throughout the years. My greatest memory is her Smile. To the families I pray God walks with you through this season.
