“ I had been out of town & first heard of Lynn's passing at the mass offering for her yesterday at Assumption. I am so sorry for your loss- Lynn was such a lovely person, always smiling, always pausing to say hello when we'd bump in to each other-most recently at Assumption masses. My deepest sympathies, thoughts, & prayers go out to all of you. Bonnie Miesbauet

“ Dear Meghan Chris and Rollie, Sophia Gavin and Ben;;
My heart goes out for your loving family. Know that losing your Mother-Mother in law and Husband and Grandmother must be soo difficult for all of you. Will for sure see you on Monday evening at the wake for your loved one!
She was such a wonderful woman!
Love

“*Rollie, Meghan, and Katie and family, Heartfelt sympathy to you all. Lynn was a very caring and kind person. She was a wonderful friend who I enjoyed spending time with and just talking about anything and everything. She always had a smile on her face especially when telling me about her family.
They meant the world to her. There is another angel in heaven now.
I will miss Lynn but have so many memories to cherish.*

“ Soooooo sad!!!!

*I worked with Lynn at Children's Country Day.
She was teacher that would always calm a wild child down by showing her comapssion and understanding, While I worked w her, I was amazed by her pure understanding of the kids. She was one of my teaching mentors.
Sometimes women will vent about work or life but Lynn was really happy with her life and career.
I am blessed to have seen her caring, calming spirit and the true love she had for her family.*
