“ Lynn and I played and went to school together at UMD. He was a very kind, big lovable guy. Smart, very tough on the field. Saw him a few years back with Tammy, on one of those movable belts in the airport. Heard them taking, had to turn around, no one had a voice that deeeeep! It was nice to catch up with him. Blessings to his family. RIP Lynn.

I just learned about Lynn's death. My husband went to high school with Lynn, and Lynn and I dated for a few months at the end of senior year. He took me to my only prom. I am sorry to learn he had to deal with Brain cancer his last two years and also the loss of his wife. He was a great person.
