“ Lynn was a good childhood friend. I have many fond memories of our time spent together. We did a lot of gymnastics, but mostly we just hung out creating fun things to do to entertain ourselves. One of our favorite past times was lip syncing to songs from many her brother's albums. suffice it to say that we did a lot of laughing together. Lynn was a part of the fabric of my life and I will always remember her for her beautiful smile and her fun, kind and happy spirit. May she rest in peace.

“ Lynn was a wonderful neighbor who was kind, warm, and cheerful. We were always in awe of her positivity for the almost twenty years that we knew her. She reminded us of what real strength and courage are and to keep things in perspective. A real inspiration. Our sincere condolences to Joe and family. May she rest in peace.

“ Since I have moved to Oklahoma, I have only seen her once returning back to Minnesota. So it really breaks my heart that I know I can't see her again. We had some good times together. Even though I don't live up there anymore I'm really going to miss her. I think of her often. She was a trooper when it came to her MS And she struggled for so many years with it but gave it her best. Love you Linnie

“ I had known Lynn since we were both about 9 years old. Our friendship in those days was characterized by silliness, adventure plus mischief, gymnastics and driving my mother crazy. Another words, it was a lot of fun!

I don't recall what all the silliness was about but maybe had something to do with driving my mother crazy or doing something mischievous. Lynn and I would later reminisce about doing gymnastics in my front yard over one of those balls that had a handle that you sat on but we found many other uses for. She had the best standing splits bar none of anyone I have ever seen and the same with her walk overs. She was a graceful gymnast. Recollections of these poses are etched in my memory and I still have photo's of them.

As we aged we would talk about these days and I often wondered why she went back to these memories after so many years. Maybe because as her M.S. progressed and she was unable to be a horsewomen or gymnast these memories were what she held onto. This is why too they are still fond for me.

I miss Lynn and her warm kind heart, resilience, optimism, sweet smile and our long friendship.

I know that as a retired nurse her and Joe's path with M.S. has bee one with many challenges.

I am ever so grateful that she has had Joe and great PCA's to be with her in this life journey. Be well dear Lynn and say "hi" to Elinor. Joe and Matt I am so sorry for your loss.

Love, Betsy Blume

“ Oh Lynn...I will miss your bright light. Always smirking, smiling, laughing. Always asking questions. A memory like no one else I have ever known, of all the details decades old. You would make me laugh every time I told you Ian and I played golf, you would ask, 'did you win, did you beat him.' I will make that my goal for you! I am so grateful that you were here and full of life when I returned for the summer. I am grateful for our visit on Monday and know you had a million things to say to me but could not. I hope you enjoyed my stories! My mother says hello...she said she saw your light leave this world.

For the family - be in peace while she waits for you.

*All of our love,
Pam and Ian*
