

Lynn Elinor Weber

August 10, 1933 - February 16, 2022

Lynn E. Weber, 88, of West St. Paul, MN, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 16. Lynn worked as a medical transcriptionist alongside her husband, John. Lynn was born in St. Paul, lived in California for several years, and moved back to Minnesota. She enjoyed living in Minneapolis and walking to its parks, shops, museums, sporting events, and theater activities. She loved spending time with family, friends, and family pets including her beloved cat Twink.

Lynn was born to Carl and Lillian Elofson. Lynn leaves behind her nieces, Sheryl Jerikovsky, Jean Henning (Steve Wisner), and Teresa (Keith) Syvertsen, her grandnephew Kurtis (Jillian) Syvertsen, and her grandniece Kristen (Alex) Hyland. Special affection of great grandniece Lucy Syvertsen, along with family friends Sue Erickson, Michelle Moga, and Barb Sachi.

Lynn was preceded in death by her husband John, father Carl, mother Lillian, sister Janine Jerikovsky, brother William Elofson, and brother-in-law Edward Jerikovsky. Memorial service to be held on Saturday, March 5 at 2 pm at Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, MN. Visitation one hour prior. Memorials preferred in Lynn's honor to the American Macular Degeneration Foundation or to a pet shelter/rescue agency.
