“ Frank, Debbie, Tessa & Mitchell

As many have said and will continue to say we cannot image the pain and emptiness you feel with this tremendous loss. Madison and Parker's beautiful smiles are shining down on you and watching out for you everyday. Just remember you will all be smiling together again someday! Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ As I drive by the beautiful shrine to your angels, every morning and night, I pray. As a member of the Christ Lutheran family and a mom I want to express how sorry I am for your loss. May your faith give you the strength and guide you through this. May the ceramic crosses I left be a reminder of the precious angels they have now become. Eventhough I do not know you please know your church family and community will continue to pray for you. We will all never forget those precious babies as they shine their light above us all.

Our thoughts are with you.

“ *Dear Thurner Family,
I am so so sorry to hear about the loss of your beautiful children.
The memorial on Radisson Road is so powerful and to see the flowers from the funeral impacted us so much. We can not fathome what you must be going thru. The whole community is saddened by this tragedy and please know that we lift you up in prayer and call on all the angels in heaven to surrounded you with peace and the love of God. No words can truly express our saddeness and grief for you.
May God bless you and shine his face upon you and give you peace.

“ I don't know you and you don't know me but I grieve with you. I am so sorry for your loss. I am 29 years old and I have no children but yet I carry a heavy heart for your loss. I cannot even imanage what you are going through. Your children were beautiful and I hope their memories bring you great joy in the times to come. There are many people around you, people who don't even know you but still grieve with you and our keeping you in their prayers. I hope you can pull strength from that - my prayers are with you and your entire family.

“ *THE LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters.
He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows.
Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

“ When we lost my little brother many years ago this poem seemed to help me get through the days. We still have the poem framed by his picture as it only seems fitting. I was so sorry to hear of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Little Angels:

*When God calls little children
to dwell with Him above,
We mortals sometime question
the wisdom of His love
For no heartache compares with the death one small child,
Who does so much to make our world
seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling,
the aged to his fold,
So he picks a rosebud
before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them,
and so He takes but a few,
To make the land of Heaven
more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult
still somehow we must try.
The saddest words mankind knows
will always be "goodbye".
So when a little child departs,
we who are left behind
Must realize why God loves children,
Angels are hard to find.*
