Love is a rose garden, bursting in song Giving a fragrance all season long
Though, love can be a blanket of snow The root of love is alive just below
Then suddenly! a beautiful spring Love is a rose garden, with a new song to sing!
Written for my sister, Marcy With love, Snookie Dorothy M Henninger

“Marcy, I have so enjoyed the time we had together. You always made me laugh and I loved hearing all the stories about your days as a musician. I remember when I was little, you used to come to our house and play for us. You also helped my mom learn how to play. You were a very special lady. I am grateful that you are finally resting peacefully and I will miss you. Love, your niece and Goddaughter, Charity
