July 10, 1940 - September 20, 2023

Weight, Marcella M.,

Age 83 of Coon Rapids, passed away Sept. 20th, 2023

Preceded in death by husband of 61 years Merle and parents Chris and Frieda Mathias. Survived by children Dean, Michael (Tammy), and Heidi (John) Dupont, grandchildren Aaron, Travis (Katrina), Zachary (Olivia), Seth (Abby), Kalin (Nick) Tassoni, Caleb (Kara), Christian and Mackenzie Dupont, great-grandchildren Hunter, Aiden, Leanna, Nora, Henry, Tate, Eloise, and Hayes plus Baby Boy Tassoni on the way, sister Sharon (Dennis) Peterson, Rodney (Sandy) Mathias and many other relatives and friends.

Marcy was a pioneer in the world of working Mom's starting as a switch board operator in the telephone industry with AT&T and Northwestern Bell and was very proud to retire at just 49 years old as a manager in the Directory assistance department. She continued to support the Telephone Pioneers of America as a lifelong member. Retirement did not begin easily for mom, as she battled and beat ovarian cancer and was passionate about telling her story and helping others to manage their own struggles with cancer. Marcy formed and hosted a bible study group called "Compassionate Friends" at Mount Olive Lutheran Church. Mom loved being at the lake, making chocolate chip cookies (take two because God gave you two hands), but mostly she loved being with family and friends. Marcy entered eternity with her Savior Jesus, celebrating the last week of her summer with amazing friends. Marcy changed the lives of others everyday by listening, supporting, and loving people who God put in her life. She will be missed greatly by all who knew her.

Mom,

I thought I would take a minute to say goodbye in writing.

I miss you so.

I miss seeing the excitement on your face when I walked through your door it was as if I had been away for years.

I miss talking to you about nothing every Monday from 4:30 to 5:15pm during my drive home, you always seemed so sad to say goodbye when I said I was home.

I miss our Thursday night dinners, I always thought it was to help you through your grief, but now I realize it was for me to help me deal with mine

I miss the trips we took with you and Dad...so glad we did.

I miss your chocolate chip cookies, the recipe from Coon Rapids house, the lake recipe is trash 😞

I miss mowing your lawn even though I complained every time I left the house, "I'm still mowing the same lawn I mowed when I was nine."

I miss blowing the snow out of your driveway and passing by the door and seeing you stand there with the look of awe on your face as if I had completed some amazing task... I simply plowed your driveway.

I miss cooking in your kitchen and creating a mess so big it would baffle any serious cook... and yet you just cleaned it up because it was the price you paid to have us all together.

I miss hearing you say for the last 30 years, "I am concerned we won't have help to close the cabin everyone is so busy."... Mom the cabin is closed and winterized. Don't worry.

I miss my 8 am text message that simply says, "Good morning."

I miss the hugs we all got when leaving your presence and your sincere offense when one of us tried to walk away before one was given.

I miss sharing news of mine and Tammy's life with you.

I miss bragging about my children with you... because you truly listened.

I miss sharing photos of my grandchildren with you... just to warm your day... truthfully it was so I could brag to someone who loves them as much as I do.

I miss teasing you about Salt and Sugar.... They look the same, you know.

I miss sharing my faith and talking about our Savior with you... Say hi to Him for me.

Mostly I miss knowing you're there for no specific reason ... I just wish you were here.

Mom, I miss you.

God's time is like a minute we'll see you soon.... But not just yet.

Love Michael
