“ Hello, this is Dave Nelson. You might not remember me after so many years. I'm so sorry for your loss. I lived next store to Marcy growing up. Her youngest son, Brian, was my best friend during those years. She was a nice, kind lady who took time to talk to us kids (even though she had her hands full with her own three son's). She was always good to our family. She stayed in touch with my parents (Dick and Barbara Nelson) after she and the kids moved. I remember she always had the "at home Mom's" over for coffee (coffee parties) in her back yard, on the picnic table. Usually in the afternoons while we kids were at school. I inherited my parents house, so living there again, seeing Marcy's old house everyday, brings back a lot of good memories. I do have some photos I will try and post later.

Take Care,

Dave Nelson

“ I am so sorry to hear of Marcie's passing. I was able to enjoy her fun spirit and culinary skills, it was always a festive house around all of the holidays. I know she will be missed by her family and friends. May she rest in peace and continue her passion for gardening in heaven. ~Tracy Magnuson (Kassera)
