

Margaret L. "Peggy" Baker

April 25, 2013

Baker, Margaret Lorraine "Peggy" (Schubert) Peggy, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, died on April 25, 2013, age 93. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ridgway Baker (died March 13, 1996), her parents, Arthur Henry and Leila (Browne) Schubert, and her brother, Leland Browne Schubert. She is survived by 4 sons, James R. (Barbara), Stephen A. (Juli), Jeffrey S. (Jolene), and David F. (Kristin); 11 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, 1 niece & 6 nephews. She graduated from Northrop High School (Minneapolis) in 1938, received her BA (Speech) from Carleton College, MN in 1942, and married Ridgway in 1945. Peggy was a devoted wife, mother, close friend, bridge enthusiast, happy dinner party hostess, avid traveler, disciplined walker, and selfless volunteer in many organizations. She never tired of making a 'new' friend in the neighborhood, at church, or any setting. She was an active member at Hennepin Ave. United Methodist Church since childhood and served on countless committees. She joined the American Association of University Women (AAUW) in 1947 and served as President of the Minneapolis Branch (1970-1972). Active on various committees for the Woman's Club of Minneapolis. She began serving on the board of Jones-Harrison Residence in 1959, and was President (1976-1978). But more importantly, she was loving, gracious, and full of joy during her long life, even through her final days. The Baker family wants to express their deepest thanks to the loving and skilled staff at Saint Therese at St. Odilia for their care of mom the last 10 months of her life. Memorial service planned for early June. Details of memorial service will appear in obituary at a later date.
