“ Although I did not have the privilege of knowing Mrs. Rasmussen, I have a connection to her. Her father, Henry J. Bemis, was a brother of Charles Frank Bemis (my great-grandfather). Please extend my sympathy to her family. Springtime Genealogy

“ I didn't meet Margie, but have heard how amazing she was. Beautiful and full of life, she spread joy and love to the people she knew, and even in death, is a living example of the importance of fun and laughter. When I think of the stories I've heard about Margie, they are of happy times, and I always smile. Thank you Maggie, for sharing her life with me. Good Friday, couldn't ask for a better day to cross over to the Lord.

“ Leaving us on Good Friday maybe she heard a calling there would be a Easter festival in Heaven where her Mother Bizz was preparing one of her holiday feasts. The Bemis family all love and miss so much those perfect holiday dinners at Grandmother Bizz and Hank's cozy home in Minneapolis. Immediate family is unconditional, and forgiving, love. Aunt Margaret will be deeply missed, it was always comforting to know she was there. Her nephew, Kenny Bemis
