“ Prayer for Those Who Mourn

*Bless those who mourn, eternal God, with the comfort of your love that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that has been given. May their memories become joyful, their days enriched with friendship,
and their lives encircled by your love.
Amen.*

“ *Oh Margie,
I will never forget you and think of you often. I will never forget when I was working with Jonathan at the library, and all the sudden I got nailed in the middle of my forehead with a rubber band, you were a good shot. We laughed so hard at that one. That's how our rubber band fights started. I think you are still shooting them at me from heaven, the other day when I got in my car there was a rubber band on my dashboard, and I didn't put it there.
The good talks we used to have I will always cherish. Miss you and Love you !! Rest in Peace my Dear Friend !!*

“ Margie had such a vivacious and personable demeanor. I enjoyed, so much, our time together - learning from you and laughing with you. She loved with all her heart and she loved her family very much. Niccole, Nate and Marissa - I loved seeing the sparkle in her eyes when she talked about all of you. Please know that you were loved. I will miss you and your wit. And even the snort, at times, that came with the joy in laughter.

“ Momma, I love you and I hope you know it. I know we had our issues, but I thought we'd have more time to fix them. I hope you understand that it wasn't anything that would have lasted forever.

Please watch over Morgan...she's going to need you around throughout her life, okay? And please make sure to visit me sometimes too, because I still need you.

I also thought you'd like to know that there will be angels throughout my house now, because I know you loved them.

“ Margie,
I am so sad to see you gone. Never would I have thought you'd be gone before me. I remember the time you called me all freaked out because you were supposed to start the turkey for your Mom and didn't know what to do. I had to come over and show you how to take the giblets out of the turkey and explain what to do to get it cooking. :)

I am so sorry for the loss your family is going through. You are never far from my thoughts!

“ Rest Peacefully Margie! You will be missed dearly. I am very thankful that I was blessed with the chance of meeting you. Words can not describe the pain I feel for your family and friends. I know A LOT of people are missing you right now. I know I am. I also know you are in a much better place now and looking down on all of your beautiful family. My condolences go to the entire family. I am very sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,

Kelsey Wenger
