I adored Maggie! She was one of the kindest souls I have ever met, so accepting and inclusive of others, and I also loved her fun spirit. We met many years ago and although as the years went by we only infrequently would come upon each other, it always felt like we picked right up where we left off. My thoughts are with Nick, Chris and your family.

“ Margaret was a classmate of mine at St. Raphael's grade school. As I recall, she had a pet monkey, which we all found amazing. May she rest in peace.
