“ I will always remember Margaret for her soft brown eyes and hair, but also for her soft voice. She had a caring voice. A voice that spoke with compassion and empathy for whatever you were sharing with her. I think I was about ten years old when I first met Margaret, she was one of Gail's greatest friends and as a younger sister, I adored Gail's girlfriends.

Later Margaret became family, marrying my brother-in-law's brother, so that is family to me, too. My children considered her "almost an aunt."

So with heavy heart, I extend my deepest condolences and sympathy to the Sarfejooy and Sarich Families. May her memory be blessed.
