“ Margaret, While it has been quite a few years since I last saw you, it semms like yesterday that the grandchildren of John & Mary Trossen would retire to the basement for games of tag or hide and seek. These are the memories I carry with me. It is difficult to lose one's sibling, I went through that 4 years ago. I will remember all of my godfathers children and grandchildren in my prayers.

“ *My dear sweet Margaret,
It was such a privilege to share our childhood, our life and most especially the time we shared last fall. You demonstrated in such a beautiful way, your courage and love. Your wonderful smile will remain with me always. I miss you so very much, but I am so grateful that you now are whole and without pain. Your "younger" twin, Mary* “Margaret ... to your twin-sister Mary and your brothers and sisters and children ... I want to say that though death is so hard to fully understand, it is the greatest gift given when we love Jesus. Your brother, Tom, often mentioned your child-like faith. That was a special gift God gave to you, Margaret. For Jesus told us that we all must have the "faith of a child". Your family will miss you deeply, but I know the hope of seeing you again will lift them high and carry them through moments of sorrow. Margaret, I bet by now a wonderful pastor has already given you a HUGE HEAVENLY WELCOME HUG, and you know his name is Timothy. Would you hug him back for me. Thanks mucho! A....
