They lived in Wausau, WI, and then after he became a pastor, they lived in Sioux City, IA, Green Bay, WI, Duluth, MN, Orlando, FL, Guadalajara, Mexico and Wenatchee, WA. After his death, Margaret continued to live in Wenatchee and then with her daughters, Mary in Olympia, WA and her daughter, Kay in West St. Paul. She enjoyed being a pastor's wife and excelled as gracious hostess to members and friends. Her musical ability brought her opportunities to serve as organist and choir director in several parishes. She was happiest when children, then grandchildren and later great grandchildren came to visit. When her health failed, her strong faith told her where she was going, so she told her children not to worry because she wouldn't. Funeral service will be at SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH, 11 West Bernard, West St. Paul on September 2, at 4 PM. Visitation will be at the church an hour before the beginning of the service.
