“Margot lived across the street from me throughout grade school and some high school. Diane Schwalbe, Margot and me, Marilyn Brestrup, played together daily... Pollyanna game board, paper dolls, you name it. Margot and Maxine always got together with my mother and me when I came back to visit from Ohio and Indiana. I finally found her obit to learn that she and my mother, Doris Brestrup were laid to rest on the same day in January 2014. She was a dear lifelong friend.
