“ Aunt Margo, the last of Mother's siblings and cousins, was a very special person who was so kind to all and who always dressed with such class and dignity. Most of, all her faith in Jesus Christ was such an inspiration to me. Her spirituality is the single-most characteristic I will always remember and cherish. Cousin Teresa, Margo's daughter, like her mother, is a very special cousin. She exemplifies the love, caring and attitude of Christ just as her mother. We love her as well as all of the kids .. a wonderful, loving family!

Sincerely,
John and Nancy Peyton
