“ It was my privilege as a hospice volunteer to spend time with Maria over the last weeks. She shared her faith in God and was strengthened by it. I was honored to meet several family members and witness their devotion and attentive care as their sweet Maria journeyed toward eternal life. There were stories of her work with children, of raising her family, and of her unparalleled culinary expertise. She leaves a great legacy.

You will miss her, but take comfort in knowing she is now with the Creator who knew her best and loved her most...and that she waits for you for the greatest of family reunions.

Blessings, Jackie Nesbitt
