“ I am so saddened for the loss of Maria. I only learned of this today. She was my mentor and friend at Medtronic. She was a talented engineer and program manager. She taught me so many valuable lessons in my career and life. She taught me how to make chicken paprikash and chicken soup “the Hungarian way”, and taught me the value of beautiful Hungarian porcelain and Hummel. She always talked of her beautiful sister-in-law and nieces that she loved dearly. We lost close contact after she retired as she was busy traveling, and I was busy with my immediate family, but we always exchanged Christmas cards. I am very fortunate to have known her and I will miss her very much. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ I am so sorry that I am only learning this now. Maria was a wonderful person and a true friend. She was one of the first people to come visit me at the hospital after each of my children were born. She was like a special grandma to my kids and will be missed. She was such a spirited person. I met her at Medtronic and we continued our friendship through the years. She dealy loved her family and especially her three neices.

“ Maria was a pioneer among the few women engineers at Medtronic. I met her in the mid 80"s when I first joined the company. She was an inspiration and a great role model. I loved her friendliness and attitude, always ready to help and share her knowledge. I have the utmost respect for her and all accomplishments. Rest in Peace my friend.
