She had a great sense of humor and loved to travel. Marian had the ability to enjoy the small things, such as birds, smiley faces, and a good angel food cake.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing & working with Ed at The Blake School. I met Marian a couple of times at school picnics. I enjoyed the video tribute. The common trait I see is all the beautiful smiles. That shows a love of God, self love & love of life. Treasure your memories of both Marian & Ed.
