She graduated from Faribault High and attended St. John's School for nursing. She married Lovern "Jerry" Nauss on January 19, 1947 in Faribault. The most exciting day of her life was "Jerry" returning home from his European Army service at the end of WWII. They also enjoyed their many travels throughout the USA.

She absolutely loved her 8 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and nieces, nephews, and their families.
